Agenda item 64 (a)

New Partnership for Africa's Development: progress in implementation and international support

Pakistan:* draft resolution

New Partnership for Africa's Development: progress in implementation and international support

The General Assembly,

Recalling its resolution 57/2 of 16 September 2002 on the United Nations Declaration on the New Partnership for Africa's Development,

Recalling also its resolution 57/7 of 4 November 2002 on the final review and appraisal of the United Nations New Agenda for the Development of Africa in the 1990s and support for the New Partnership for Africa's Development and resolutions 58/233 of 23 December 2003, 59/254 of 23 December 2004, 60/222 of 23 December 2005 and 61/229 of 22 December 2006 entitled "New Partnership for Africa's Development: progress in implementation and international support",

Recalling further the 2005 World Summit Outcome,<sup>1</sup> including the recognition of the need to meet the special needs of Africa and also recalling its resolution 60/265 of 30 June 2006,

Bearing in mind that African countries have primary responsibility for their own economic and social development and that the role of national policies and development strategies cannot be overemphasized, and also the need for their development efforts to be supported by an enabling international economic environment, and in this regard recalling the support given by the International Conference on Financing for Development to the New Partnership,<sup>2</sup>

* On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the Group of 77 and China.

<sup>2</sup> See Report of the International Conference on Financing for Development, Monterrey, Mexico, 18-22 March 2002 (United Nations publication, Sales No. E.02.II.A.7), chap. I, resolution 1, annex.

Stressing the need to fully deliver on all commitments by the international community regarding the economic and social development of Africa,

1. Welcomes the fifth consolidated report of the Secretary-General;<sup>3</sup>
2. Reaffirms its full support for the implementation of the New Partnership for Africa's Development;<sup>4</sup>
3. Recognizes the progress made in the implementation of the New Partnership as well as regional and international support for the New Partnership, while acknowledging that much needs to be done in its implementation;
4. Reaffirms the resolve to provide assistance for prevention and care, with the aim of ensuring an AIDS-, malaria- and tuberculosis-free Africa, and of achieving as closely as possible the goal of universal access by 2010 to HIV/AIDS treatment in African countries, to encourage pharmaceutical companies to make drugs, including antiretroviral drugs, that are affordable and accessible in Africa and to ensure increased bilateral and multilateral assistance, where possible on a grant basis, to combat malaria, tuberculosis and other infectious diseases in Africa through the strengthening of health systems;
5. Reaffirms its full support for the implementation of the Declaration of Commitment on HIV/AIDS, adopted at the twenty-sixth special session of the General Assembly on 27 June 2001,<sup>5</sup> and the Political Declaration on HIV/AIDS, adopted by the Assembly on 2 June 2006;<sup>6</sup>

I

Actions by African countries and organizations

6. Welcomes the progress made by the African countries in fulfilling their commitments in the implementation of the New Partnership to deepen democracy, human rights, good governance and sound economic management, and encourages African countries, with the participation of stakeholders, including civil society and the private sector, to continue their efforts in this regard by developing and strengthening institutions for governance, creating an environment conducive to involving the private sector, including small and medium-size firms, in the New Partnership implementation process and to attracting foreign direct investment for the development of the region;

7. Also welcomes the commendable progress that has been achieved in implementing the African Peer Review Mechanism, in particular the completion of the peer review process in a number of countries, further welcomes the progress in implementing the recommendations of those reviews, and in this regard invites African States that have not done so to consider joining the Mechanism process and to enhance its effectiveness;

8. Further welcomes and appreciates the continuing and increasing efforts of African countries to mainstream a gender perspective and the empowerment of women in the implementation of the New Partnership;

9. Stresses that conflict prevention, management and resolution and post-conflict consolidation are essential for the achievement of the objectives of the New Partnership, and welcomes in this regard the cooperation and support granted by the United Nations and development partners to the African regional and subregional organizations in the implementation of the New Partnership;

10. Recognizes the need for African countries to continue to coordinate, in accordance with their respective national strategies and priorities, all types of external assistance in order to integrate effectively such assistance into their development processes;

11. Encourages African countries to accelerate the achievement of the objective of food security in Africa and in this regard reaffirms its support for the outcome of post-Abuja meeting of the Food Security Summit, held in Ethiopia in May 2007;

12. Recognizes also the important role that African regional economic communities can play in the implementation of the New Partnership, and in this regard encourages African countries and the international community to give regional economic communities the necessary support to strengthen their capacity;

13. Supports the ongoing efforts by the African Union to improve the coordination between the New Partnership secretariat, the African Union Commission, the regional economic communities and African States;

14. Encourages the establishment of national institutional mechanisms for further domestication and integration of the priorities and objectives of the New Partnership in national policies and programmes;

15. Emphasizes that progress in the implementation of the New Partnership depends on a favourable national and international environment for Africa's growth and development;

16. Encourages African countries to further enhance public awareness and commitment to the New Partnership and its programmes through, inter alia, effective and comprehensive communication and outreach strategies;

Response of the international community

17. Welcomes the efforts by development partners to strengthen cooperation with the New Partnership;

18. Also welcomes the various important initiatives of Africa's development partners in recent years, and emphasizes the need for their effective implementation;

19. Welcomes and supports the implementation of the Declaration on the New Asian-African Strategic Partnership, concluded during the second Asian-African Summit in Bandung, Indonesia, on 24 April 2005 in conjunction with the commemoration of the golden jubilee of the Asian-African Conference of 1955 aimed at promoting and strengthening a comprehensive and cooperative relationship between Asia and Africa in the political, economic and socio-cultural spheres;

20. Recognizes the important role that South-South cooperation can play in supporting Africa's development efforts, including implementation of the New Partnership;

21. Urges continued support of measures to address the challenges of poverty eradication and sustainable development in Africa including, as appropriate, debt relief, improved market access, support for the private sector and entrepreneurship, enhanced official development assistance and increased flows of foreign direct investment, and transfer of technology;

22. Recognizes that Africa, which contributes the least to climate change, is one of the most vulnerable and exposed regions to its adverse impact, and in this regard calls upon the international community, in particular developed countries, to support Africa in its adaptation efforts through, inter alia, the transfer of technologies, capacity-building and the provision of adequate and predictable resources;

23. Reiterates the need for all countries and relevant multilateral institutions to continue efforts to enhance coherence in their trade policies towards African countries, and acknowledges the importance of efforts to fully integrate African countries into the international trading system through initiatives such as building Africa's capacity to compete and the provision of assistance to address the adjustment challenges of trade liberalization;

24. Calls for a comprehensive and sustainable solution to the external debt problems of African countries, including cancellation or restructuring for heavily indebted African countries not part of the Heavily Indebted Poor Countries Initiative that have unsustainable debt burdens, and emphasizes the importance of debt sustainability;

25. Notes with concern the continuing decline of flows of official development assistance to Africa in spite of the recent pledges by the Group of Eight countries to double by 2010 official development assistance to Africa, and in this regard calls upon the international community, particularly the Group of Eight, to honour their commitments, and further urges donors to continue to improve the quality of aid in accordance with the Paris Declaration on Aid Effectiveness: Ownership, Harmonization, Alignment, Results and Mutual Accountability, adopted at the High-level Forum on the question of "Joint Progress towards Enhanced Aid Effectiveness: Harmonization, Alignment, Results", held in Paris from 28 February to 2 March 2005, and to ensure that the increase in official development assistance translates into the actual flow of financial resources to developing countries;

26. Recognizes the need for the international community to make continued efforts to increase the flow of new and additional resources for financing for development from all sources, public and private, domestic and foreign, to support the development of African countries;

27. Invites developed countries to promote investment by their private sectors in Africa, to help African countries attract investments and promote policies conducive to attracting domestic and foreign investment, such as encouraging private financial flows and promoting and maintaining macroeconomic stability, to encourage and facilitate the transfer of the technology needed to African countries on favourable terms, including on concessional and preferential terms, as mutually agreed, and to assist in strengthening human and institutional capacities for the implementation of the New Partnership, consistent with its priorities and objectives and with a view to furthering Africa's development at all levels;

28. Requests the United Nations system to continue to provide assistance to the African Union and the New Partnership secretariat and to African countries in developing projects and programmes within the scope of the priorities of the New Partnership and to place greater emphasis on monitoring, evaluation and dissemination of the effectiveness of its activities in support of the New Partnerships;

29. Invites the Secretary-General, as a follow-up to the 2005 World Summit, to urge the United Nations development system to assist African countries in implementing quick-impact initiatives through, inter alia, the Millennium Villages Project, and also requests the Secretary-General to include in his report an assessment of those quick-impact initiatives;

30. Reaffirms its decision to hold within existing resources a high-level meeting on “Africa’s development needs: state of implementation of various commitments, challenges and the way forward” during its sixty-third session;

31. Stresses the need for close consultation between the United Nations, the African Union, and regional and other subregional organizations in preparing for the high-level meeting;

32. Requests the Secretary-General to promote greater coherence in the work of the United Nations system in support of the New Partnership, on the basis of the agreed clusters;

33. Reiterates the call upon the United Nations system to mainstream the special needs of Africa in all its normative and operational activities;

34. Requests the Secretary-General to take measures to strengthen the Office of the Special Adviser on Africa in order to enable it to effectively fulfil its mandate, including monitoring and reporting on progress related to meeting the special needs of Africa;

35. Expresses concern that the post of the Special Adviser on Africa continues to be vacant and, in this regard, requests the Secretary-General to appoint, as soon as possible, a Special Adviser on Africa, in accordance with its resolution 57/7;

36. Requests the Secretary-General to submit a comprehensive report on the implementation of the present resolution to the General Assembly at its sixty-third session on the basis of inputs from Governments, organizations of the United Nations system and other stakeholders in the New Partnership.
