Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States,⁶ held in New York on 24 and 25 September 2010,

Reaffirming the outcome document of the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development, held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, from 20 to 22 June 2012, entitled “The future we want”,⁷ including the call for the convening in 2014 of a third international conference on small island developing States,

Recalling its resolutions 67/207 of 21 December 2012, 67/290 of 9 July 2013 and 68/1 of 20 September 2013, and its decision 67/558 of 17 May 2013, in which it decided on the dates of the Third International Conference on Small Island Developing States,

Taking note of the Leaders’ Declaration adopted at the meeting of the Heads of State and Government of the Alliance of Small Island States, held in New York on 27 September 2012,

Welcoming the inaugural meeting of the High-level Political Forum on Sustainable Development held in New York on 24 September 2013, and looks forward to the future meetings of the Forum, at which adequate time shall be devoted to the discussion of the sustainable development challenges facing small island developing States,

Welcoming also the outcome document of the special event to follow up efforts made towards achieving the Millennium Development Goals, held in New York on 25 September 2013, at which, inter alia, Member States recognized the special challenges and needs of small island developing States, many of which are not on track to achieve the Goals by 2015,

Acknowledging those Member States that have made voluntary contributions to the trust fund in support of preparations for the Conference and to support the participation of representatives of small island developing States in the regional and interregional preparatory processes,

1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on Follow-up to and implementation of the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation on the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States;⁸

2. Also takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on the implementation of Agenda 21, the programme for the further implementation of Agenda 21 and the outcome of the World Summit on Sustainable Development and of the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development,⁹ and reiterates that the Commission on Sustainable Development has been the only place where implementation of the outcomes of the global conferences on the sustainable development of small island developing States has been monitored and reviewed and that this mandate will need to be strengthened in the work of the High-level Political Forum;

⁶ Resolution 65/2.

⁷ Resolution 66/288, annex.

⁸ A/68/316.

⁹ A/68/321.

3. Further takes note of the outcomes of the 2013 regional preparatory meetings for the Third International Conference on Small Island Developing States, held from 2 to 4 July in Kingston, from 10 to 12 July in Nadi, Fiji, and from 17 to 18 July in Mahe, Seychelles, as well as the outcome of the interregional meeting held from 26 to 28 August 2013 in Bridgetown;

4. Reaffirms the commitment to take urgent and concrete action to address the vulnerability of small island developing States, including through the sustained implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States² and the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States,⁴ and underlines the urgency of finding additional solutions to the major challenges facing small island developing States in a concerted manner so as to support them in sustaining the momentum realized in implementing the Barbados Programme of Action and the Mauritius Strategy and achieving sustainable development;

5. Decides that the theme of the Third International Conference on Small Island Developing States in 2014 shall be “The sustainable development of small island developing States through genuine and durable partnerships”, and also decides that the Conference should serve as a forum to launch innovative and concrete partnerships to advance the sustainable development of small island developing States;

6. Reaffirms its decision that the Conference will result in a concise, focused, forward-looking and action-oriented political document;

7. Decides to launch the work of the preparatory committee, which will carry out the preparations for the Conference;

8. Also decides to establish a bureau consisting of two members of each regional group, and that Samoa will serve as an ex officio member of the bureau of the preparatory committee;

9. Further decides that the bureau will be co-chaired by two Member States, comprising one developed State and one developing State;

10. Invites regional groups to nominate their candidates for the bureau of the preparatory committee no later than early January 2014;

11. Decides that:

(a) The first meeting of the preparatory committee will be held over five days, from 24 to 28 February 2014, to discuss views of Member States, the United Nations system, major groups and other stakeholders on the substantive theme of the Conference, as decided in the present resolution, organizational and procedural matters, including the rules of procedure, and to elect the bureau;

(b) The second meeting of the preparatory committee will be held over five days, from 21 to 25 April 2014, to discuss the outcome document of the Conference and pending procedural matters;

(c) The third and final meeting of the preparatory committee will be held over five days, from 23 to 27 June 2014, to finalize the preparatory work for the Conference;

12. Also decides that all meetings of the preparatory committee will be held at United Nations Headquarters in New York unless otherwise decided by the preparatory committee;

13. Reiterates that the Conference will be convened at the highest possible level;

14. Recommends the provisional agenda set forth in annex I to the present resolution for adoption by the Conference;

15. Decides that the Conference shall be organized in accordance with the organization of work set forth in annex II to the present resolution;

16. Strongly encourages Member States to conclude negotiations on the draft outcome document at the third session of the preparatory committee;

17. Requests the Secretary-General to provide all appropriate support to the work of the intergovernmental committee process of the Conference and to the Conference itself and to ensure inter-agency cooperation and effective participation and coherence within the United Nations system, as well as the efficient use of resources, so that the objectives of the Conference can be addressed;

18. Urges international and bilateral donors, as well as the private sector, financial institutions, foundations and other donors in a position to do so, to support the preparations for the Conference through voluntary contributions to the trust fund in support of global preparations for the Conference and to support the participation of representatives of developing countries in the meetings of the preparatory committee and in the Conference itself, priority being given to small island developing States, including coverage of economy-class air tickets, daily subsistence allowances and terminal expenses;

19. Stresses the need for the effective participation of major groups, and invites voluntary earmarked contributions to the trust fund to support the participation of major groups of developing countries, in particular small island developing States, in the meetings of the preparatory committee and in the Conference itself;

20. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its sixty-ninth session, under the item entitled "Sustainable development", the sub-item entitled "Follow-up to and implementation of the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States";

21. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its sixty-ninth session on the implementation of the present resolution.

Annex II

Proposed organization of work of the Third International Conference on Small Island Developing States

Apia, 1 to 4 September 2014

1. The arrangements set out below have been formulated pursuant to General Assembly resolution 67/207.
2. The Third International Conference on Small Island Developing States will be held in Apia from 1 to 4 September 2014.

I. Organization of work

A. Plenary meetings

3. The Third International Conference on Small Island Developing States will consist of an opening and a closing and a total of twelve plenary meetings, to be held as follows:

Monday, 1 September 2014: from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 6 p.m.

Tuesday, 2 September 2014: from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 6 p.m.

Wednesday, 3 September 2014: from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 6 p.m.

Thursday, 4 September 2014: from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 6 p.m.

4. The twelve plenary meetings will consist of six meetings devoted to statements from Member States, organizations of the United Nations system, intergovernmental organizations, major groups and other stakeholders running in parallel with six half-day interactive, multi-stakeholder partnership dialogues.
5. All plenary meetings will be held at the Faleata Sports Complex in Apia.
6. The list of speakers for the plenary meetings will be established on a first-come first-served basis with the customary protocol that ensures that Heads of State or Government speak first, followed by other heads of delegation. The European Union, in its capacity as observer, will be included in the list of speakers. Detailed arrangements will be communicated in a timely manner through a note by the Secretariat, prepared in close consultations with the host country and the bureau of the Preparatory Committee.
7. The outcomes of the partnership dialogues should be reported to the closing plenary meeting of the Conference and included in the final report of the Conference.
8. At the formal opening of the Conference, to take place during the morning plenary meeting on Monday, 1 September 2014, consideration will be given to all procedural and organizational matters, including the adoption of the rules of procedure and of the agenda, the election of the President of the Conference, the election of officers, the establishment of a Main Committee, the appointment of the members of the Credentials Committee, arrangements for the preparation of the report of the Conference and other matters. At the opening, statements will be made by the President of the Conference, the President of the General Assembly, the Secretary-General of the United Nations, the Chair of the Alliance of Small Island States and the Secretary-General of the Conference.

9. The closing plenary meeting, to be held in the afternoon of Thursday, 4 September, is expected to conclude with the reporting on partnership dialogues, to be followed by the adoption of the outcome document and the report of the Conference.

10. The plenary meetings will run in parallel except for the opening and closing.

B. Multi-stakeholder partnership dialogues

11. The Third International Conference on Small Island Developing States will include six multi-stakeholder partnership dialogues, held in parallel with the plenary meetings, as follows:

Monday, 1 September 2014: from 3 to 6 p.m.

Tuesday, 2 September 2014: from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 6 p.m.

Wednesday, 3 September 2014: from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. and from 3 to 6 p.m.

Thursday, 4 September 2014: from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m.

12. The six high-level multi-stakeholder partnership dialogues are expected to provide, inter alia, an opportunity for:

(a) Recognizing successful partnerships and initiatives in support of the implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States, the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States and the outcomes of the Conference;

(b) Launching innovative and concrete partnerships and initiatives between Governments, international and regional organizations, multilateral institutions, major groups, the organizations of the United Nations system, non-governmental organizations, the private sector and civil society to support the advancement of the sustainable development of small island developing states;

(c) Interactive and focused discussions on key priorities related to small island developing States to allow Member States and relevant stakeholders to contribute effectively and to launch partnerships that can advance the sustainable development aspirations of such States.

C. Main Committee

13. A Main Committee, established in accordance with the rules of procedure of the Conference, will meet if necessary in parallel with plenary meetings, except during the opening and closing meetings. The Main Committee will be responsible for finalizing any outstanding matters.

II. Credentials of representatives to the Conference: appointment of the members of the Credentials Committee

14. A Credentials Committee will be appointed according to the rules of procedure of the Conference.

III. Accreditation

Institutional stakeholders

15. Other relevant intergovernmental organizations that were accredited to the World Summit on Sustainable Development, the International Meeting to Review the Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States, the high-level review meeting on the implementation of the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States and the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development, as well as relevant organizations of the United Nations system, including associate members of the regional commissions, may participate in the deliberations of the Conference, as appropriate, in accordance with the rules of procedure of the Conference.

16. In addition, interested intergovernmental organizations that were not accredited to the World Summit on Sustainable Development, the International Meeting to Review the Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States, the high-level review meeting on the implementation of the Mauritius Strategy for the Further Implementation of the Programme of Action for the Sustainable Development of Small Island Developing States or the United Nations Conference on Sustainable Development may apply to the preparatory committee for accreditation following the established accreditation procedure. Information on accreditation will be available on the Conference website.¹⁰

IV. Secretariat

17. The Secretary-General of the Conference will serve as focal point within the Secretariat of the United Nations for providing support to the organization of the Conference, in cooperation with the host country authorities.

V. Documentation

18. In accordance with the practice followed at previous United Nations conferences, the official documentation of the Conference will include documents issued before, during and after the Conference.

19. In accordance with the practice followed at previous United Nations conferences, it is recommended that the report of the Conference consist of the decisions of the Conference, a brief account of the proceedings and a reportorial account of the work of the Conference and the action taken at the plenary meetings.

20. Summaries of the plenary meetings and partnership dialogues should also be included in the report of the Conference.

VI. Organization of parallel meetings and other events of the Conference

21. Parallel meetings and other events, including those of major groups, will be held during the same hours as the plenary meetings and the partnership dialogues, space permitting. Interpretation services will be provided for such meetings, as available.

VII. Side events

22. Special events, including briefings, seminars, workshops and panel discussions on issues related to the sustainable development of small island developing States, will be organized by Member States, organizations of the United Nations system and accredited institutional and non-institutional stakeholders, including major groups, for the benefit of the participants in the Conference. Guidelines for organizing special events and the calendar of those events will be made available on the Conference website.

VIII. Media coverage

23. Press materials will be prepared by the Department of Public Information of the Secretariat for journalists covering the Conference. In addition, regular press releases will be issued on the results of plenary meetings and other events. All relevant documentation will be made available electronically at the Conference website.

24. The plenary meetings, partnership dialogues and press conferences will be broadcast live to the media area. A programme of special media briefings and press conferences will be announced.
